August 11, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

I am writing you today in regards to the catastrophic fire that swept through Maui, Hawaii. Many of our ILWU Brothers and Sisters and their families have been effected greatly, some losing their homes and belongings. Below are 3 ways you can help. I thank you for your consideration and may God Bless those in need.

In Solidarity,

Greg Mitre
ILWU Pensioners President

1. If you have an account with the ILWU Credit Union, you may send donations directly through the Credit Union. To do so, call the Credit Union's main number at (310) 834-6411 and tell them you wish to contribute to the Kokua Maui Fund.
2. If you do not have an account with the ILWU Credit Union or you wish to send a check or money order, please make your check or money order out to:

ILWUCU-Kokua Maui Fund
and mail the check or money order to:
ILWU CREDIT UNION
650 Iwilei Rd. Suit 195
Honolulu, HI 96817

3. The ILWU will be collecting goods to ship to Hawaii at the ILWU Memorial Hall located a 231 West "C" St. Wilmington, CA 90744. We will be collecting goods from 8am. to 6pm. Goods needed are Diapers, Baby Food, Toiletries, Tents, Sleeping Bags, Towels, Clothes (especially children's clothing), and basic home necessities. The next container will be shipped, Thursday, August 17th.
