Subject: Notification of P2P Advisory Board Formation

Dear Mr. Galvin,

On behalf of Pathway to Podium (P2P), I am pleased to formally inform you that we have established our Advisory Board to support the continued development of the Olympic Training Center at Cabrillo Beach Youth Camp and the broader goals of P2P.

This board brings together leaders from business, education, sailing, and community development, reflecting our shared vision of positioning San Pedro as a global hub for high-performance sailing leading up to the 2028 Olympic Games.

Confirmed P2P Advisory Board Members:

- Peyton McElyea (CFO, New Urban West)
- Elise Swanson (President and CEO, San Pedro Chamber of Commerce)
- Ryan Blaney, Esq. (President & CEO, San Pedro Property Owners Alliance)
- Peter Hazdovac (Owner, Adriatic Travel; Chair, LA28 Croatian House)
- Ann Carpenter (CEO, Braid Theory)
- Pete Settelmayer (CEO, Boys and Girls Club)
- Roger O'Connor (Sailing Director, King Harbor Yacht Club)
- Peter Kinney (SailGP Athlete; Professional Sailor; Marine Electronics Technician, Alcom Marine Electronics)
- Kevin Dillard (CFO, West Harbor)

The Advisory Board will serve as a strategic and community-focused body, guiding initiatives related to infrastructure, partnerships, programming, and legacy planning in coordination with the Port of Los Angeles.

We are deeply grateful for the Port's ongoing support and partnership. Together, we are creating not only a world-class training venue but also a lasting legacy for our community.

Sincerely,
Kelly P. Marie
