REQUEST FOR BID (RFB) ADDENDUM #1 – BIDDER QUESTIONS AND CLARIFICATIONS

REQUEST FOR BID F-1176

DESCRIPTION: PLUMBING SUPPLIES, EQUIPMENT, APPLIANCES, FITTINGS, FIXTURES, TRIM AND ACCESSORIES

The RFB has been amended for clarification and to correct a misspelling on Line 1C. Please use the attached amended bid document, F-1176,1 to submit your bid.

The following questions have been submitted by prospective bidders for clarification. The Department’s answers are in red:

1. Line G, it calls out for Brass Fittings, Nipples, Hangers, and related parts. There is a huge discount difference in brass fittings and Brass nipples so 1 discount will not work, how do we address this? This line reflects the terms of the current DWP Plumbing contract which we are currently utilizing as a piggyback authority. If you are unable to offer a single discount/markup for the items listed in this line, please indicate the discount/markup you can honor for each type of part, or utilize an aggregate discount/markup to account for the pricing differential.

2. In each description you have Manufactures list on the end, are we to populate that with the manufactures we are discounting to the city? No. Each line ends with “various manufacturers” to indicate that no particular manufacturer is requested or required for each line, so as to allow for discounting to apply to multiple manufacturers of each type of part.

3. Line C states Flash valves, I’m sure you referring to flush valves such as Sloan. Please confirm. Yes, it should read “Flush Valves”. This line has been corrected in the attached amended Bid Documents, F-1176,1.

4. Line T refers to Pumps circulating pumps such as Bell & Gossett have a large discount difference than a sewage pump such as Zoeller. How do you want us to discount? This line reflects the terms of the current DWP Plumbing contract which we are currently utilizing as a piggyback authority. If you are unable to offer a single discount/markup for the items listed in this line, please indicate the discount/markup you can honor for each type of part, or utilize an aggregate discount/markup to account for the pricing differential.

5. Are we to supply a list price sheet for every manufacturer quoted? As stated under “Price Agreement Conditions”, list prices will be obtained from the “Tra-Ser” online catalog unless otherwise stated.
Please address any questions regarding this bid to:
