

Firm _____ Date _____ Total Score _____/150

Reviewer _____

4. Describe a time when you had to make a difficult decision regarding management of resources due to unforeseen circumstances, either with team members or equipment. What management strategies does your team employ to prepare for these situations? (25 points)

5. Many EMD Water Group projects require the collection and analyses of complex datasets. Please explain the approach and skill sets your team has to help the Port present complex information to different audiences such as scientists, managers, regulators, and the public. (25 points)

Firm _____ Date _____ Total Score ____/150

Reviewer _____

6. Assume we asked you to create a presentation intended to educate EMD Water Group staff about emerging environmental concerns that will affect the Port. What topic would you chose for your presentation and why? (20 points)

7. Provide an example of how your experience has helped overcome unforeseen challenges in a project. Please focus on either a field effort or a project that involved negotiations with regulatory agencies. (20 points)

8. Is there anything you would like to add that we have not already discussed during this interview? (5 points)