

“Wilmington Wave” Exhibit

Animated, interactive lighting at the Wilmington Waterfront Park pedestrian bridges

Project Elements:

- LED light tube suspended from the northern edge of all three pedestrian bridges
- Lights respond to pedestrian traffic, setting of wave patterns mimicking phosphorescent ocean waves
- When no pedestrians are present, random wave patterns are set off every 5 to 15 minutes
- In daylight, mounting hardware allows the tubing to undulate in the wind in wavelike patterns

① SECTION, TYP.
SCALE: 1"=2'-6"